

“I Am Freshly Anointed” Confessions

The Day of Pentecost has fully come and I am freshly anointed!

I am consecrated: devoted and set apart for the worship and service of God.

I am sanctified: purified and productive with spiritual blessings for God’s holy purposes.

I am like the anointing oil: I have a life full of components that all work together for my good.

I am like the olive: I have been crushed and the cost of my anointing is expensive and valuable.

I am like myrrh: I have endured the brokenness, bitterness and hurt of life.

I am like sweet cinnamon: I have gone through the grind of life to get to the sweetness of life.

I am like calamus: I have a joyful aroma that perfumes the air while I am growing.

I am like cassia: I have hopes and dreams inside of me that are awakening.

I am filled with the Holy Spirit.

I am moving in a fresh anointing.

I am experiencing the promises of God.

I am a visionary and a dreamer.

I am able to prophesy and declare God’s Word.

I am able to call on the name of the Lord and be saved in every situation.

I am anointed to cast out demons.

I am anointed to speak with new tongues.

I am anointed to overcome deadly situations.
