

NEWBIRTH

For the people who are tired of having to eat the same thing, live in the same place, work at the same job, make the same income and are sick of people talking about a new season when they are in the same circumstances; today we have had our last supper of quail and manna!

Blessing: As of the first (1st) Whatever has been the same thing is over at midnight! Those of us who expect God to give us something we have never experienced in our lives; have the benefit of not waiting until midnight! We give God a praise at 1:00 in the afternoon that our season of monotony is coming to an end!

Blessing: God is getting ready to make up to us the years we struggled. Beginning tomorrow the first (1st), God in one year is going to make up the last seven years! We do not wait until the battle is over; we shout now!

God wants us to know what is in our heart!

The first (1st) is our graduation! We got cleared for takeoff to go to another level of Kingdom mindedness; traffic in the supernatural, lay hands on the sick and prophesy over our children. We are getting ready to graduate and speak those things that are not as though they already are!

You better be careful how you handle me! I found out how to pray for myself! I found out how to lay hands on myself! I learned how to encourage myself! This is my graduation!

Prophecy:

Starting on the first (1st) every day I wake up, God is going to speak to me as clear as you hear my voice right now. He is going to give me a word, a word of confirmation!

The prophecy over my life is still valid! God is going to give me the desires of my heart!

Whatever I have been encountering that is bigger than me, whatever the enemy has been yelling at me; the call of God and the destiny that rests on my life; is getting ready to fall by the first (1st)! Everything I am fighting against is getting ready to fall!

The enemy is not just after me, he is trying to wipe out my family and what the devil does not know is I am the one anointed to fight for my family! Whatever has been in our bloodline is about to be dismantled! God is about to break every generational curse that runs through our family!

There were some issues in 2018 that tried to mess with my confidence, my self-esteem and my anointing, but Satan, I am going to tear your kingdom down (in the Name of Jesus)!

This is the year I will not need anything for (God) shall supply all of my needs! Everything I need God to supply, He is about to fulfill!

NEWBIRTH

This is the year I have nothing to prove! I know who I am, what I was called to do and the assignment over my life!

The anointing on me is so heavy, whoever is close to me in 2019 will come through some circumstances just because they are in relationship with me! They don't even understand that the anointing on me is so rich, that just because they shook my hand, there has been a transfer of the anointing!

We really don't know our relationship with God until we have lost everything, and we have to rebuild when we have nothing to work with.

It is the grace of God that is keeping me covered!

IT'S OVER! IT'S OVER! The heartache is over! The disappointment is over! The backstabbing is over! The depression is over! The struggle is over! The crying is over! Those who sowed in tears will reap in Joy! Weeping may endure for a night, but on the first (1st), JOY! JOY! JOY! IT'S OVER!

God owes us some 'stuff' and He will start paying us back on the first (1st)!

Prayer:

Whatever you have for me Lord, I need you to reveal it! I need You to make it clear and plain on the first (1st). Confirm the business idea you gave me, confirm the book that is trapped in my spirit, confirm the non-profit I am supposed to get off the ground, confirm the pieces of property I am supposed to purchase. Confirm the conference that I am supposed to have. Confirm for me the people in my family that some things are going to shift for them this year!

On January 1, God is going to release the refresh button and give me a new lease on life!
