

NEW BIRTH

Sunday, July 7, 2019, "I Can Show You Better Than I Can Tell You", by Dr. Jamal H. Bryant, Scriptural Reference: Jonah 2:1-3; 9

Father, I repent because I am ready to make a commitment to change! I want to be better, live better and serve you better! I need more strength, discipline and greater focus! Lord God, I repent for every negative word, thought or deed. I repent for not eating right, and not following what the doctor said. I repent for being an emotional abuser, taking the stress of my job out on my household. I repent for stealing Your tithe when you have been a blessing to me! I repent for not operating in my calling! I repent and forget those things which are behind and press toward those things which are ahead; to my high calling! Lord we are grateful that your grace extends into 2019! We give you praise because you accept our repentance!

Sunday, July 14, 2019, "I Am Trying to Keep It Together" by Dr. Jamal H. Bryant, Scriptural Reference: Romans 8:35; 38-39; I Corinthians 11:1;

God is going to use our church to fortify families. Thank You Lord for revealing ways to strengthen our marriages. We commit to work through areas of income, intimacy and imagination. We commit to pray with and for one another, discuss our expectations and articulate our feelings. We receive the blessing of our pastor that God is going to help married couples fall back in love again this summer! Thank You Lord, New Birth is going to be a Divorce Free Church! Thank You for revealing that every single person has too much gift, anointing and passion to be a girlfriend, side chick or a secret. The next twelve months will be a season of surprise proposals. Our sisters remain consistent for their power is in the spirit of unity. You are preparing mates for our children, a husband for our daughter; and a godly wife for our son. Thank You, God for you are getting ready to elevate them to where they are supposed to be! We are grateful You will bless our marriages, bless our families; and that today begins a new chapter in our bloodlines!

'I Don't Mean No Disrespect" by Dr. Jamal H. Bryant, Sunday, July 21, 2019, Scriptural Reference: Genesis 27:5-10

Thank You Lord, for the Blood of Jesus is covering my family, children and marriage. I am the ambassador of my family and I was not chosen by people; I was called by God. No weapon formed against me shall prosper. As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord and be in place. As a parent, we are not our children's peer. We stop putting a call on our children in life that they are not assigned to. God is the one who calls us to His service. Thank You Lord that we keep our family from emotional bankruptcy. For every person in the family not in line with the will of God; Holy Spirit change their vision, language, and disposition. God will supply all of our needs! He is about to fill our hand for everything we need for this year is about to fall in our hand. Father God give us courage, and strength, this week for difficult conversations.

'Black Men Don't Cheat', by Dr. Jamal H. Bryant, Sunday, July 28, 2019, Scriptural Reference: I John 1:9

Father God, I do not always make good decisions. I come to church because I am forgiven, not because I am perfect. We confess to God for He is faithful to forgive us and cleanse us from unrighteousness. Lord, give me one more week for I want to be more disciplined than I was last week! As adults we understand that our actions bring consequences. The first step to my recovery is admit I have a problem; and there are things broken in me that I have to deal with. God is merciful, gracious and faithful to show me what part of me needs to be cut off; and what part of me needs to grow up, in order to fulfill my destiny. I will talk to God every day, not just when I am in trouble.
