

Confessions for Families

We declare according to Psalm 115:14 that the Lord causes our families to increase more and more.

We declare according to Proverbs 18:22 that he who finds a wife, finds a good thing and obtains favor from the Lord.

We declare according to 1st Peter 3:7 that husbands dwell with their wives with understanding, giving them honor, that their prayers may not be hindered.

We declare according to Ephesians 6:4 that fathers do not provoke their children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

We declare according to Proverbs 12:4 that wives walk in excellence and are a crown to their husbands.

We declare according to Psalm 128:3 that wives are like a fruitful vine in the very heart of their homes. Their children are like olive plants all around the table.

We declare according to Daniel 1:4 that our children are strong, healthy, good looking, and gifted in all wisdom. They possess knowledge, are quick to understand, and have the ability to stand before kings.

We declare according to Luke 2:52 that our children increase in wisdom, in stature and in favor with God and men.

We declare according to Titus 2:2 that our older men are sober, reverent, temperate, sound in faith, sound in love, and sound in patience.

We declare according to Titus 2:3-4 that our older women live in a way that honors God. They are able to teach the younger women to love their husbands, to love their children, to be discreet, chaste, homemakers, good, and obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be blasphemed.

We declare according to Psalm 78:5-7 that our testimony is established and we will make it known to our children, that the generation to come might know, the children who are yet unborn, that they might declare them to their children, that they may set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments.
