New Birth:

My sons and daughters, there is more happening in the spiritual realm than you can see. Do not lose focus. Draw closer to the light which is in Christ only. Do not get caught up in the distractions and things that are of no value to you or My kingdom. I am reminding you that division can only come from the enemy. He is attempting to use misinformation and lies to cause you to lose faith and also to have you to fight the wrong battles. Yes, you are to defend yourself when necessary, but peace and unity must be your desire. Gather facts and not opinions. Do not fall for the divide and conquer scheme. In this hour, you have many unlikely allies, so do not discount them based on past experiences. It is important that you recognize who they are to team up and bring the schemes of the enemy to an end. You are more than capable to distinguish who is on your side from who your enemies are. Walk uprightly and be My light in the midst of darkness. Be My voice and defend righteousness and justice. Look again and respond as I have commanded you.

It is time for the barren trees of your mind to be cut down. These are thoughts that have put limitations on your potential. They kept you in a place of bondage and I did not give them to you. You are greater than what you have been thinking. You will not be remembered for what you accomplish on your own strength, but by what I sent you to accomplish for My kingdom. Meditate on the promises that I have given to you. Who told you that your business will not be a success? Do not believe what the enemy has told you. It is time to rise up and start that catering service. The world is waiting to see you dominate in this industry. You will be sought out by many celebrities and public figures. You will not be limited to the United States. I have given you recipes that no one else has ever seen. Do not delay.

I am instructing you on how to navigate during this pandemic. I am your source of insight and not the media. I will lead you to all truth in this hour. Take what the world presents to you and verify its source. The enemy loves to create chaos to cause the world to react out of fear. I am opening your eyes to reveal to you who I am using to carry out My will on this earth. You will witness many abrupt changes in this season. The changing of the guard is happening now. Do not rely on political figures or a particular party. They are all capable of deceit and betrayal. Many will start to be exposed for what they have been doing. I am placing you in prominent areas which you did not think was possible to attain. You will use these positions to exemplify My character and show the world what true leadership looks like. Remain faithful in what I give you and you will continue to prosper like never before.

Mountain of Education

I AM shining a bright light on education for a window of time. Hear My voice, superintendents, administrator, teachers and parents. I send a Sound you need to hear, as a whispering hush of intermittent showers of rain. Be still and listen to My voice and you will plan strategies that are benchmarks for your school population and all stakeholders.

My young boys and girls are more precious than silver or gold; I AM keeping them safe in this pandemic. The curriculum is set and exemplifies My character; I AM giving you policies and procedures, fashioned on tablets from Me; you hear a small still voice as you write and deliver the product. I summon you to come up higher and conquer the mountain of education to begin a new process to capture the eyes of nations. Hear My voice through parents, as they help you plan and deliver home and on site instructions in a time as uncertain as now in 2020.

Stand on the ramparts and see what I AM saying. Obey My voice and make school buses safe. Seek My face and your methodology will match the educational environment and the population. I AM providing the next decade for you to enable the most educated and holistic population of mankind with a mixture of traditional and technological instructions. Be still and hear Me. By August 2020, you will have implemented the first phase plan, I have already ordained for 2020-2021 school year. Be strong and courageous; I AM with you and will never forsake you.

Mountain of Media

My sons and daughters amidst the unusual and unexpected deaths and tragedies, plagues and strange weather patterns, I am speaking. If you will only tune your ears to the sound of My voice, you will not only hear Me, but discern everything going on in your life more clearly. In this season like never before, I am using media to advance My Kingdom. This year, I will teach you the strategies through media on how to advance My Kingdom in unusual ways enabling you to reach the unchurched, those who are lost, and those who are broken. My words linger in the air daily every morning about everything that is to come in your life and the world. Sometimes, I simply want to share how I see you, how valuable you are to Me, and how much I love you. Other times, I speak through media calling you to draw nearer to Me giving you vivid screenshots of what could become if you would trust Me and believe Me.

I am everywhere all at once and because I am everywhere, so is My Word and My Voice. If you are not careful, you will only take in information and make decisions based on what you see, what you hear, and feel through the world's media. The world's media has its own message and its own objective and it can sometimes distort, discourage, and negate what I am saying and what I want to get to you and where I yearn to take you. I am Light; I am good; I am Love; I am your future! The world's media in 2020 will seek to cause you to get so lost in the negative that if you are not careful, you will miss the blessings and opportunities I am whispering to you to move out on. This year, you must learn to discern Me through the noise. I am always speaking....do you hear Me? The world's media in 2020 will seek to distract you. What appears to be is often not. And what does not appear to the world really is. I am speaking to you about your children, your families, your future, and your destiny and how this will be a pivotal year in your life. By the end of this year, you will become proficient on how to recognize My voice. Those who are able and choose to follow My voice over the din of the world's media will not only rise far above where they currently are spiritually, financially, and creatively, but they will be able to do this with clarity and sound the alarm to their families on what is to come good and bad in the next twenty-four months. I am using the same avenues that the world uses for communication. You will recognize My voice this year through Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, News, TV, Movies, Music, and YouTube like never before.

Just as the enemy is striving to use media to distort and destroy, this year, I am using media to encourage, inform, prepare, and to liberate. In 2020 like never before, I will be raising up voices that will be using all forms of media to speak to the world, to cause hardened hearts to be softer with love, to bring healing, to inspire those who connect with Me to go after and manifest unusual dreams and to have a kingdom impact on the world. This year, you will see pop artists, various secular artists, and those in the film and television industry begin to be bold about including Me in their songs, movies, and in their social media. The world will be shocked at some of these personalities, but when you see it know that it is My hand and power at work. This will introduce millions to My way and expose millions of others to hope, love and My Word. They will turn back to Me and I will heal those who are broken.

Globally, I will be causing social media personalities to rise up that I will use to spread My message of hope, love, healing, and wisdom.

I will launch a spiritual revival never seen in the world before using media as My assistant. This will change even how some world leaders view Me and My Word. It will cause even others to have a new reverence for Me and My Word. There will still be others who will try to silence Me not realizing that I am everywhere, and I am an unseen but felt Almighty force. I will give millennials and teens new hope and new life using media this year. There will be another significant rapper that the world follows that I will use to change his message to one of hope, love, and unity. Movie producers will have to go back to the table and write and film movies that align with My Word and My message. Even though they will do it for profit, it will inspire millions in the world to turn to Me.

In 2020, you must choose to be intentional about what you allow your spirit to be open to. You must become intentional what you listen to and watch through all forms of media. Whatever you focus on is what you open your spirit to. Focus on Me and what I reveal to you and you will not only rise higher spiritually during this season, but creatively, financially, and emotionally as well. Walk with Me closely and be amazed how far I will take you in the next twelve months. When you do this, I will make you and your gifts more attractive to the world. The contacts in your cellphone will begin to change. You will be amazed this year at who I give you access to. Always remember that as you tune into Me and walk with Me, know that regardless of what the world says through media, all will be well! In 2020, tune into Me and be restored, be refreshed, and be reset for the next exciting chapter of your life!
