Tithing Creed

I am a tither. The tithe is not mine. It is the Lord's.
I bring ten percent of my income back to God who gave it to me.
(Leviticus 27:30; Malachi 3:10)

We declare and decree that we have more than enough.
We are lenders, not borrowers, and we live in overflow.
(Exodus 36:5; Ephesians 3:20; Deuteronomy 28:12)

Windows, doors and gates are open for me.
I am blessed beyond measure, and the devourer is rebuked.
(Malachi 3:8-12; I Corinthians 16:9; Acts 12:10)

I give and I receive good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over as people constantly give to me.
(Luke 6:38)

I do not give grudgingly or under compulsion.
I am a cheerful giver. God loves me and I love God!
(2 Corinthians 9:6-7)
