"You Remind Me of My Mother" by Dr. Jamal H. Bryant.

Scripture Reference: Luke 1:34

I am a peculiar person.

I will feed my faith and starve my fears.

I am zealous for the things of God.

What I carry will ignite change in the earth realm.

Every gift, dream, idea is going to come to pass.

I am birthing something, and God is my strength.

John 5: I desire better and more; I am whole and restored.

Romans 12:2: I have a renewed mind, I will not think negatively.

Hebrews 13:5: I will never leave you nor forsake you because the Lord is always with me.
I will not give up or lose hope.

Father, in the Name of Jesus, we decree and declare that Your spoken word shall come to pass in our life within the next 3 weeks. I am a peculiar person. I declare that whatever positive words my mother spoke over my life shall come to pass. According to John 5, I will not remain the same in my surroundings, but I will desire better and more and will allow God to be my strength. Romans 12:2: I have a renewed mind; I will think positive thoughts. I will feed my faith and starve my fears. I am zealous for the things of God and every gift, dream, idea is going to come to pass. I will not rely on my mother's strength, but on God's strength; because according to Your word You will never leave me nor forsake me (cf. Hebrew 13:5). I will push and never give up or lose hope! This is the end of every demonic cycle; a double portion is being released out of my life.
