Prophetic Word for New Birth December 2019

The bells of freedom and justice rings in the air and the pendulum of favor and recompense has swung your way. The camels are in your midst, some will arrive in a few days, and others shall come to deliver the incenses, spices, oil, and gold. It is the season of the oil and the oil that is housed in your mouth, hands, belly, and feet shall transform the nations. International attention is peaking, and your name has reached the foreign lands. What will you show them? What will you teach them? The waters have receded and now they shall see the treasure that was hidden in plain sight. There are several millionaires in your midst and four billionaires are being birthed. I have already given you everything that you need and the thing that you are looking for is on the inside of you. You have entered into a harvest season and it is imperative that you enter into a cycle of storing and saving. Many great opportunities shall come your way, but listen intently for instructions and directions for the ones that I have designed just for you. Be aware for the wolves in sheep clothing are scheming and their purpose is to extract and not add to what has been established. You know how I sound so do not allow flattery words to tickle your ears and get you off course. You have been willing and obedient and now you shall eat the good of the land.

A spiritual alignment of what is and is to come has taken place and a blue print of kingdom manifestation has been released upon the earth. The people shall witness the eye has not seen and the ear has not heard for this is a by-product of resilience and obedience to My mandate on your life. Now set yourself on the rampart to see what I have said, to speak what I said, and to do what I have already done. Receive the prophetic grace that has been released upon your life and walk in divine power and authority!
