

NEW BIRTH

Prophetic Word for New Birth
September 2019

My sons and daughters, the wait is over for I have commanded the enemy to release My people. This is the time that My faithful ones will arise. Those who have weathered the storms and chose Me as their Source will emerge from desolate, dark, dry places to a place of prominence and prosperity. No longer will you have to toil and fight...for that time has come to an end. You have toiled over your finances and worried about your future. You have even vacillated on moving forward in the dreams and ideas I have strategically downloaded within you. I tell you, the gate has swung wide open. And now is the time to move forward in opening the business, going back to school, and even seeing yourself as I created you. Now is the time of great access. Position yourself for elevation by setting your eyes and heart on Me. Your time of plenty has come.

The assignment has been tedious for many of you. You didn't think you would make it through. I heard your cries and pushed back the enemy and raised you up. Look, I have given you this land, but you have to possess it. This land...land of dreams fulfilled, is what I promised you and your ancestors before you. This is the place where I expect you to elevate your thinking and maximize your occupation. This is a major, yet serious venture for this possession isn't just for you and your household, but for generations to come. I have escorted you to the threshold and you'll have to use your eyes of faith to see beyond. See beyond the giants standing before you...the giants of fear, disappointments, regrets, poverty, lack, and intimidation. See beyond these and move forward. Though I have given you this land, you have to possess it. Possess this land-your promises-by relying on Me. Again I say, I am your Source. Take possession and occupy for this is your metron - your sphere of influence.

Elevate your trust in Me-for it must penetrate your deepest doubt. I am doing some unusual things in your life...unusual miracles performed in unusual ways. Don't look for Me to move ordinarily, stretch your faith to see Me bring the impossible to fruition. Can you believe that? What took years to come to pass will now only take days and, in some cases, mere hours for I am God. Many of you have felt stuck and stagnant for quite some time. Some months...some even years. Spiritually and naturally, you have been stuck in positions, financial and health statuses that don't favor you and aren't representative of your Kingdom stance. I say no more. In this season, I'm propelling you to new heights. Ask Me where to go and I'll tell you; how to accomplish that big dream and I'll show you. It is My pleasure to give beautiful and good gifts to My children. This new season you have entered is comprised of many doors. Some will require you to push open; others require you to pull open. Prepare yourself to move immediately for these opportunities will not be on the table too long. Rejoice, My children, for this is an exciting time to be an ambassador of My Kingdom!

Declarations:

- Thank You, Father, for being my Source and directing me to a place of prominence and prosperity.
- I have positioned myself for elevation by setting my eyes on My Father.
- Thank You, Lord, for giving me the land that You promised my ancestors. Today, I take possession of this land!
- I expect to experience God's unusual miracles performed in unusual ways in my life.
- I stretch my faith to believe in the impossible.
- I am an ambassador of God's Kingdom and I rejoice for what's in store for me!
